

National Bioethics Committee for Research

Members Professional Profile Form

Full Name	Prof. Dr Ejaz Ahmad Khan
Academic Qualification	MBBS, MPH, FFPH, CHPE
Designation	Professor
Department/Institute	Public Health/Health Services Academy, Islamabad.
Brief Summary	Professor Dr Ejaz Ahmad Khan is a medical doctor and public health academician with over 25 years of experience in teaching, training, and research in public health and environmental epidemiology. He has specific expertise in epidemiology, environmental health, climate change, communicable and non-communicable diseases, injuries, nutrition, and disaster management. He has conducted consultancies for various national and international organizations. He has been a programme manager for emergencies and crises, as well as for immunization. He holds a medical degree and a post-graduate degree in primary health care management/public health, and a fellowship in public health. He is a member of International Society of Environmental Epidemiology, and Co-Chair of its EMR chapter. Prof Khan is also an affiliate of CIEH (UK). He has published around 242 research articles and three (3) book chapters with an H-index of 118, 110, 276 research interest score and 203,732 citations. For the three consecutive years (2022, 2023, & 2024), he has been ranked among the top 100 scientists in the world in his professional disciplines for Asia. He has several certifications and has completed short courses, and has served as an editor for national and international journals, as well as being a reviewer for various scientific journals. Recently, he has received the Faculty of Public Health (UK)'s President's Medal for outstanding contributions to public health. Also, he has been ranked among the top 2% most influential researchers according to the latest global citation impact ranking (2025).