

National Bioethics Committee for Research

Members Professional Profile Form

Full Name	PROF. EJAZ AHMED KHAN
Academic Qualification	MBBS, MD Diplomat, American Board of Pediatrics Diplomat, American Board of Pediatric Infectious Diseases
Designation	Professor and Chief of the Pediatrics and Infectious Diseases Department, Chair Infection Control
Department/Institute	Professor and Chief of the Pediatrics and Infectious Diseases Department at Shifa International Hospital and Shifa College of Medicine, Islamabad
Brief Summary	Interests: AMR, Infection Control, antibiotic stewardship, TB, Typhoid, Neonatal infections, Vaccinations Ejaz Ahmed Khan is the Professor and Chief of the Pediatrics and Infectious Diseases Department at Shifa International Hospital and Shifa College of Medicine, Pakistan since 1997. He is also the Chair of Infection Control and the Chair of Antibiotic Stewardship Committee at Shifa International Hospital, Pakistan. He served as Chair IRB & Ethics Committee for 15 years. Dr. Khan is well-known and respected across Pakistan and internationally for his work in the field of infectious disease. He is also member of the Regional Immunization Task Advisory Group (RITAG) for WHO and also National Immunization Advisory Group (NITAG). He has worked extensively on various national and international projects, guidelines, trials and policy matters in lead capacity, technical and advisory role. He is also Chair of the Global Antibiotic Partnership. He also has served on the Boards of HMC and AMC MTIs. He has served as an editorial board member for various journals and has published extensively including original articles, reviews, chapters and guidelines in national and international journals. Professor Khan graduated from Aga Khan University, Pakistan and completed his pediatric residency at University of Florida, USA and fellowship at Baylor College of Medicine, USA and has got his recent re-certification in Pediatrics and Pediatric Infectious Diseases from American Board in 2026. He is Life Member and immediate-past president of the Medical Microbiology and Infectious Disease Society Pakistan (MMIDSP) and Life Member of the Pakistan Pediatric Association. In summary Dr Khan has over 25 years of clinical, educational, administrative, research, and policy experience in the field of AMR, AMU, infection control, and infectious disease in Pakistan.